

Call for Applications Together with you 2025

NEVATIM, a program of the Jewish Agency for Israel that supports initiatives in informal Jewish education, invites you to apply for our 2025 competition.

We are here to support transform your motivation into ideas and your ideas into successful projects. Additionally, we offer financial support for the implementation of your projects.

We are looking for projects with a focus on humanitarian, educational, social, or cultural themes.

Possible project topics include:

- Anniversary Year: 60 Years of German-Israeli Relations
- Preserving Memory: 80 Years Since the Liberation of Auschwitz
- Strengthening the Jewish Community
- Jewish Spaces for Empowerment
- Exploring and Revitalizing Jewish Heritage in Germany
- Preventing and Combating Antisemitism
- Fighting Various Forms of Discrimination
- Social and Political Engagement from a Jewish Perspective

These topics are meant to inspire your creativity rather than limit it. Please note that one-time events or multi-day events will not be funded.

We look forward to your innovative project ideas!

Project funding of up to €10,000
Eligibility: Jewish young adults aged 18 to 35.
Projects must be completed by December 31, 2025.
Ongoing projects will not be supported.
Applications are open from February 2 to February 28, 2025.
GOOD LUCK, AND SEE YOU AT NEVATIM!

Gefördert durch:

aufgrund eines Beschlusses
des Deutschen Bundestages

Further information and application forms can be found here: info@nevatim.de